ONLINE CHANGES – PROCESS ALL HIRES, SEVERS, AND TRANSFERS ONLINE AT WWW.AZRE.GOV – ONLY ONLINE PROCESS AVAILABLE

Form LI-202 to be completed only for the hire/transfer/sever of a Licensee with an ADRE departmental matter pending. Not for Designated Brokers (DB or Sole Proprietors (SE))

PROVISIONAL LICENSEE'S OR LICENSEES WITH A DEPARTMENTAL MATTER - Licensees with a provisional license or a departmental matter and cannot use the online system to process changes to a personal license online, must submit Form LI-202 completed with signatures and correct fee. Provisional licensees moving from one entity to another may need a practice monitor letter from the new Designated Broker (DB). (NOTE: Some provisional licensee's may need an approval signature from Enforcement and Compliance before submitting this document to Licensing for processing). Check the provisional status of a license prior to ADRE activity.

LATE RENEWAL AGENTS – When expiration date has passed, licensee must rehire or reactivate license after the renewal process has been completed in order for an active status to be complete. (Note - If the online system shows your status as "ACTIVE" and you are late, even 1 day late, you are indeed inactive and expired and must rehire after renewal).

FEES: Fees may change without notice. Visit ADRE website at www.azre.gov and view the updated fee schedule.

BRANCH MANAGER STATUS LICENSEES: Branch Manager changes cannot be processed online. Submit completed and scanned branch office forms (Form LI-204 and LI-219) via ADRE Message Center; click here. Every branch office must have a branch manager in place to operate as a branch office. A Designated Broker cannot function as a branch manager.
