ARIZONA DEPARTMENT OF REAL ESTATE (ADRE) INSTRUCTIONS FOR CERTIFICATE OF COURSE APPROVAL CONTINUING EDUCATION/DISTANCE LEARNING/PRELICENSE COURSE (ED-102-CE/DL/PE)

Course content approved by the ADRE must be directly related to professional real estate practice and adhere to the specific guidelines as stated in the current A.R.S §32-2135 and A.A.C. R4-28-402, as well as serve to protect the public interest by providing relevant education to real estate licensees professional practice of real estate.

A.A.C. R4-28-101 "Distance learning course" means a course of instruction outside a traditional classroom situation consisting of computer-based interactive instructional material, requiring completion in the credit hours specified. A course that requires a student to read text, listen to audio tapes, or view video material without student participation, feedback, and remedial instruction is not a distance learning course. Instruction/delivery methods for distance learning courses may be presented by computer, internet, host/remote location. The host/remote location instruction delivery method must be classes that are held in classrooms with synchronized platforms, bi-directional audio and video communications between the host and remote classrooms, administered by a live instructor from the host classroom, and monitored by an onsite monitor in the classroom at each remote classroom location.

The following are examples of courses deemed as unacceptable topics for approval for continuing education credit: Prospecting for Leads/Listings/Buyers; Social Media; Computer and/or Internet; Negotiation Techniques; Body Language Interpretation; Managing Personal Budget; Home Decoration; Landscaping; Identity Theft Protection; Stress Management; Personal Marketing; Interpersonal Communication; Positive Thinking; Time Management; Safety. Other topics not listed may also be deemed unacceptable.

Overview of Course Application Requirements

- Review A.A.C. R4-28-402 for course content categories. Approvals will not be granted for any course material that does not adhere to these guidelines.
- A school, licensed or exempt from licensure under A.A.C. R4-28-404, must present all classes leading to licensure or renewal of licensure for approval by ADRE.
- Application Timeframe Filing Requirements (A.R.S §32-2135 License Time-frames, allows ADRE 30 days to process live education applications and 90 days to process distance learning education applications.)
  - > Original live course applications must be received by ADRE no less than 30 days prior to the first course presentation.
  - > Distance learning course applications must be received by ADRE no less than 90 days prior to the first course presentation.
  - Distance learning course applications with Instruction/Delivery Methods for Host/Remote Location must be received by ADRE no less than 30 days prior to the first course presentation.
- Only a completed application, with a detailed course outline, with time allocations, including a Desired Instructional Outcome, and the Attestation signed by an authorized School Administrator, will be accepted for processing (refer to www.azre.gov Education FAQ on "Who Can Sign a Course Application"). Prelicense course outlines must adhere to the "Outline of Prescribed Curriculum" as found at www.azre.gov.
- Only ADRE approved schools may submit a request for course and/or instructor approvals.
- All instructors listed on application must have a current Instructor number, except for guest speakers.
- The application must describe any teaching materials and/or aids used, including any student handouts and textbook titles. Please do not submit hard copies of instructional material to ADRE.
- A "credit hour" is 50 minutes of instruction, which shall include student participation/interaction, and at least one other method of instruction. (A.A.C. R4-28-101)
- Exemptions from Instructor Qualifications Criteria "Guest Speaker" (including panelists) is defined as an individual who teaches a real estate education course on a one-time only or very limited basis, who possesses a unique depth of knowledge and experience in the subject matter proposing to teach. A Guest Speaker does not apply to Prelicensure or Instructor Development Workshop (IDW) courses. The Guest Speaker exemption does not apply to a licensed instructor who wishes to teach in other categories or specific course subjects that are not approved for that instructor to teach.
- Sale or promotion of products or services are not permitted during instructional time, but is permitted prior to or after class, or during breaks. Lender programs presented in class must be generic programs offered through other lenders, and not proprietary to the presenting lender.
- The school may advertise a course, before its approval, only as "pending approval."
- See A.A.C. R4-28-103 and Table 1 for course application processing time-frames. If deficiencies continue to exist after the overall time-frame period, the course approval will be denied.

- Salesperson Prelicense, Broker Prelicense, contract writing pursuant to A.R.S. § 32-2124(L), and Instructor Development Workshop courses shall be held in a "live classroom setting," as an individual course, by an individual instructor, in an individual classroom.
- A.R.S. §32-2135(E) states, in pertinent part: "The commissioner may determine minimal content requirements for approving educational courses....".
- A.R.S. §32-2135(F) states, in pertinent part: "For a live classroom course, the applications shall include a course outline with sufficient detail to clearly identify the scope and content of the course. The outline shall state a desired instructional outcome for the course." A detailed course outline of the proposed course material must be submitted as part of the application. For each three-hour course or course segment, the submitted course outline, at a minimum, must be in 12 point type, that clearly identifies the nature of the subject matter and topics, including time allocated, with enough detail that the course content may be evaluated for appropriateness and approval category. The desired instructional outcome shall state an objective unique for the proposed course and relevant to the course content as set forth in the outline. The course outline applies to distance learning courses pursuant to A.A.C. R4-28-402 (B) and (D). Refer to the course outline example included in instructions below.
- Minimum of 3 hours in each category to qualify for continuing education. A.A.C. R4-28-402.
- Maximum of 9 hours per day for continuing education. A.A.C. R4-28-401(E).
- Maximum of 10 hours per day for prelicensing education. A.A.C. R4-28-402 (C).

Notice to Applicant Pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-1030

An agency shall not base a licensing decision in whole or in part on a licensing requirement or condition that is not specifically authorized by statute, rule or state tribal gaming compact. A general grant of authority in statute does not constitute a basis for imposing a licensing requirement or condition unless a rule is made pursuant to that general grant of authority that specifically authorizes the requirement or condition.

This section may be enforced in a private civil action and relief may be awarded against the State. The court may award reasonable attorney fees, damages and all fees associated with the license application to a party that prevails in an action against the state for a violation of this section.

A State employee may not intentionally or knowingly violate this section. A violation of this section is cause for disciplinary action or dismissal pursuant to the Agency's adopted personnel policy.

This section does not abrogate the immunity provided by section 12-820.01 or 12-820.02

Notice to Applicant Pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-1093.01

An agency shall limit all occupational regulations to regulations that are demonstrated to be necessary to specifically fulfill a public health, safety or welfare concern. Pursuant to sections 41-1093.02 and 41-1093.03, Arizona Revised statutes, you have the right to petition this agency to repeal or modify the occupational regulation or bring an action in a court of general jurisdiction to challenge the occupational regulation and to ensure compliance with section 41-1093.01, Arizona Revised Statutes.
