Arizona Department of Real Estate Update - March 24, 2020

Thanks to the many of you that have reached out to ADRE over the past week with questions related to the situation around COVID-19. First and foremost, information is available on the Arizona Department of Health's website regarding COVID-19, and what individuals should do to stay well, click here.

Update to Host/Remote Classroom Approval for Pre Licensing & CE

Due to the Public Health emergency with COVID-19, Arizona Real Estate instructors can deliver Host/Remote courses from their homes.

Several Real Estate Education Schools have inquired if video conferencing technology (example: Google, Zoom, etc.) can be used to convert Live Courses to Host/Remote.

Answer: Yes, on a temporarily approved basis. If you have students currently enrolled and attending Live courses, you must complete the new Addendum(s), and provide your original course approval before beginning the Host/Remote Course below.

- For Pre Licensing, please be sure to submit the already approved ED-110-PE or ED-112-PE with the Addendum, click here.
- For Continuing Education (CE), please be sure to submit the already approved ED-102 with the Addendum, click here.
- Click here to submit the application through the Online Message Center.

The majority of the Department of Real Estate's services, such as renewing your license, applying for an original license, transferring your license, and filing a complaint can be completed online through the Online License System, click here, or the Online ADRE Message Center, click here.

Should you have questions, please contact me at ldettorre@azre.gov.

Thank you for all you do.
