ADRE VOLUNTEER COURSE MONITOR PROGRAM

- Training with Bill Gray Moved To early-2022 BUT we're offering virtual training for those interested. If you're interested, let us know and we'll get you signed up! We currently have a virtual training scheduled for Dec. 16, 2021 (RSVP here by Dec. 13 to join this session).
- If you have a background and awareness of Arizona real estate education requirements and educational processes, then you are a good candidate to be an ADRE Volunteer Course Monitor. We had 8 people sign up after the last quarterly bulletin!
- PURPOSE: The purpose of monitoring real estate education is to ensure that approved schools and instructors are in compliance with Arizona Revised Statutes and Commissioner's Rules.
- INFORMATION: Request information and an Application through the Message Center.
Volunteer Monitors shall not be an ADRE licensed educator affiliated with an ADRE approved school.

NEWS YOU NEED

- 2022 Real Estate Law Books are at the printers! (We'll let you know when they arrive...)
 - Schools may have more than one Administrator on record with ADRE. The Primary Administrator may add additional Administrators to assist them, by submitting a completed ED-106 and the required documentation through the Message Center.
 - Education Applications should only be submitted to ADRE by a school Administrator on record with ADRE.
 - Course Completion Certificates may ONLY be signed by the authorized Administrator registered with ADRE. Student names are to be inserted by the school – NOT by the student and NOT by a course sponsor or any other party.

COMING SOON

In early-2022, ADRE will begin reviewing standard education forms for opportunities to streamline and simplify processes where appropriate. Input on current forms from Educators (schools & administrators) will be invited at that time. More information about the process to come in January and future education updates.
