Instructions for Completing COM-400

(Request for Case Closure and Return to Regular License Status)

You must submit a completed COM-400 form before the Compliance Officer can approve changing your license type from Provisional to regular. The form is available on the Department's website, www.azre.gov, under Forms and Publications – Compliance. Once you have completed the required period of active licensure, generally 2 years (730 days), submit form COM-400 to the Compliance Officer to begin the process of returning your license to regular status.

The form requires that you enter your name, license number and date of license expiration on the top line. Enter the Order number (case number) and date of the order on line 2. Check the appropriate box for order type and indicate if the order included a suspension.

Enter all periods of active employment that fulfills the terms of the Order. The form automatically calculates and totals the amount of time you were employed by the brokerage. Begin with your current or most recent brokerage; if currently employed, leave the sever date blank. Then enter your next most recent employer. You may enter up to six employers. Your employment history is available on the Department's website. Log-in to your account and go to Quick Links and select View My Employer Public Database Record. Your employment history can also be found on the Departments website, On-Line services, Public Database.

The form can be electronically signed and dated. Once complete, submit to the Department using the website Message Center. Go to Enforcement and Compliance, Submit compliance forms and affidavits. The first line of your message must state your Order Number and the number of the form(s) you are submitting, i.e. COM-400. Be sure to attach the completed form.

If you are unable to submit the form using the Message Center, it may be submitted to the Compliance Officer via email. The Subject Line must contain your name, the order number and the form(s) you are submitting.
